

SOCIETY LOOKS FORWARD TO POST-LENTEN GAYETIES

Holy Week Has Been Generally Observed by Absence of Festivities.

MANY EVENTS FOR NEXT WEEK

Meeting of Daughters of Confederacy Called for To-Day to Protest Against Proposed "Jubilee" at Appomattox on Anniversary.

Marking the conclusion of Holy Week, there will be very little of interest given in the world of smart society to-day. A few informal functions were given in the early part of the week, but there has been practically no entertaining for the past two days. The coming week will be an unusually crowded one, and many smart affairs have been planned. Dances, dinners, charity affairs and smaller functions without number will be given, and society will begin to make up in a manner for the dull Lenten weeks that have just passed, preceded by an unusually quiet winter season. There will be a small dinner at the Country Club of Virginia this evening, and several parties will be held on the afternoon of the 10th. An orchestra will play throughout the evening.

Visiting Here.
Miss Nellie Payne, who has been spending the past several months in Harrisonburg, where she is a student at the Normal School, has returned to Richmond for Easter. Miss Payne is the guest of Miss Hattie Scott during her stay here.

Home Wedding.
A pretty wedding of Wednesday evening, celebrated in the home of the bride's parents, 212 Hanover street, was that of Miss Mary Edith Michaels, daughter of Mrs. R. E. Michaels, to William Robert Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Jones, of Blackstone. The ceremony took place at 6:30 o'clock, Rev. R. H. Pettit, D. D., pastor of Monument Methodist Church, officiating.

The lower floor of the house was decorated in quantities of pink and white flowers against a background of palms, ferns and Southern holly. Roman hyacinths, pink snapdragons and other spring flowers banded the mantels and were arranged about the room.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, M. N. O. Michaels, and her wedding gown was fashioned of white crepe de chine, lace and pearls. Her hair was dressed in the style of a high and was caught to the train of a lace gown with clasp of pearls and sprays of lilies of the valley. She carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley and orchids.

Miss Nina Adams, of Blackstone, who was the bride's maid of honor, wore a costume of pink brocade charmeuse, and her flowers were an arm bouquet of Mrs. Russell roses. The aisle for the wedding party was formed by ribbons held by Misses Luette Michaels and Blanche Jones, and they carried armfuls of Easter lilies.

A reception followed immediately after the ceremony and later Mr. and Mrs. Jones left for a Northern wedding tour.

Among the out-of-town guests at the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. Ashton C. Jones, Miss Mattie Jones, of Washington, D. C.; Mr. and Mrs. John B. Jones, of George P. Adams, Miss Luette Adams, Miss Nina Adams, Misses Blanche and Gertrude Jones, Mrs. George Levy, Mrs. R. R. Adams, Charles Cardozo, Mr. Cobb, Mrs. Adams, Mr. Wigglesworth, Dr. Hooks, Robert Scott, all of Blackstone, and Jack Shell, of Lawrenceville, interesting house party.

"Hyco Heights" Denniston, the home of Mr. W. Owen, was the scene of a charming week-end house party, commencing March 26 and ending Tuesday, March 30. This beautiful old home has been the gathering place for many a party, and on Monday evening they attended an enjoyable entertainment given by the Cluster Springs Academy Dramatic Club under the auspices of Miss Sarah Craddock. The evening's work was done by Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Denniston, of Cluster Springs, Misses Harriet Stuckey, Richmond; Frances Brown Bell and Martha Rader, Lewisburg, W. Va.; Virginia Smith, Easton, South Jersey; Tina Fontaine, Martinsville; Mattie Packard, Richmond; Messrs Charles Owen, Cleveland, O.; Harry Hyland, Washington; Harry and Rufus Owen, Cluster Springs; and Edwin Owen, Denniston. WOMEN'S MEETINGS.

The Richmond Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, has called a special meeting for this morning at 11 o'clock in Lee Camp Hall, to protest against the action taken by the Bull Run Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, and the Confederate veterans in wishing to unite with the Business Men's League and Union veterans of Massachusetts in making a "Jubilee" of April 9, at Appomattox.

POVERTY AND DISTRESS AMONG WORKING WOMEN

Young Women's Christian Association Bureau Besieged by Applicants for Positions in Many Trades.

"The poverty and distress among working women in Richmond this year is terrible," said Miss Wilfred Crenshaw, employment secretary of the Young Women's Christian Association, yesterday. "There were seventeen in my office to-day, weeping and begging for work which I was unable to find for them. Most of these women are factory hands, and unable to do any other kind of work. The consolidation of the Columbia and Virginia shoe factories and the fact that many of the tobacco factories are only working on part time, has increased the distress."

The remarkable thing about these girls is that most of them will actually starve before they will go into domestic service, though I have made calls for good positions of that kind that I can fill. The reason for this, I believe, is that they think they are putting themselves on a level with the negroes. One woman, pale for want of food, said to me recently: 'No, indeed, I couldn't work on Sunday for anybody.'

The Young Women's Christian Association employment bureau, whose work is entirely gratuitous, has for three years been a vital part of the association.

FOUR FELLOWSHIPS

Woman's Occupational Bureau Asked to Make Recommendations of Students.

The Woman's Occupational Bureau, recently established here at the Young Women's Christian Association, has the power to recommend candidates for four paid fellowships in social-economic research, offered by the department of research of the Women's Educational and Industrial Union. Social and economic research has become, of late, one of the most popular fields for women's activity. These fellowships, which are only open to college graduates, are worth $500 each, and consist of a year of research work, largely a study of social statistics. The clerical assistance, equipment and traveling expenses necessary during this year of research are furnished by the department, and the work counts, in many colleges, toward a master's degree.

How American Women May Keep Faces Young

"The American smart woman ages early, far earlier than the English woman," says Christian Miller, F. C. I., the famous English health expert. She adds that our climate "so exhilarates that you over-exert yourselves and grow old before you know it. That same exhilarating air dries the skin. The skin that takes moisture grows pale and withered looking and soon forms wrinkles."

"The American complexion" is best treated by applying pure mercerized wax, which causes the faded, lifeless cuticle to flake off in minute particles, a little each day, until the fresh, young skin beneath is wholly in evidence. Every druggist has this wax, one ounce is sufficient. Spread on at night like cold cream, washing it off next morning. For wrinkles, dissolve an ounce of powdered salicylic acid in a half pint whisky; bathe the face in this, immediately every wrinkle is softened, even the deep lines. Both treatments are remarkable facial rejuvenators.

HYDE LEAVES FEDERAL PRISON AT ATLANTA

Released After Serving Sixteen Months in Connection With Land Frauds.

DECLARES HE HAD BULLY TIME

Formerly Was Millionaire Clubman and Business Leader of Oakland, Cal.—Was Tried and Convicted in 1908.

ATLANTA, Ga., April 2.—Frederick A. Hyde, formerly a millionaire clubman and business leader of Oakland, Cal., has been released from the Federal penitentiary here, after serving sixteen months in connection with land frauds, and will leave for his home tomorrow. Prison officials announced to-day that Hyde left the prison late yesterday.

President Wilson recently remitted the fines and costs assessed against Hyde, the total of which never had been definitely determined, and which has resulted in his staying in prison four months after his sentence had expired. Hyde originally was sentenced to two years imprisonment, but this was commuted to a year and a day, before he began his term. In taking action in the case, President Wilson directed that Hyde be released at once.

News of Hyde's release did not become public until late to-day. In announcing his intention to leave tomorrow for California, Hyde said: "I had a bully time in prison. It was the most worth-while sixteen months of my life."

In 1904, President Roosevelt ordered an investigation of alleged land frauds which resulted in the indictment of Hyde and several others on charges of conspiring to defraud the government out of thousands of acres of land on the Pacific Coast.

Hyde was tried and convicted in 1908. The case attracted attention throughout the country, and was taken before the United States Supreme Court three times. After a notable legal fight, Hyde began serving his sentence in December, 1913.

During his term, Hyde gave money liberally to assist in providing sports and recreation for the prisoners.

BARON ROTHSCHILD BURIED

Thousands Line Streets Near Home and Outside of Cemetery.

LONDON, April 2.—In accordance with his request, Baron Rothschild was buried quietly to-day at the Willesden Jewish Cemetery.

Brief private services were held at the residence in Piccadilly. Only the family and close friends attended. Outside the house there gathered a crowd of perhaps 4,000, including many persons from the Jewish community in the East End.

The body was taken from the house in a closed hearse, followed by motor cars containing the baron's two sons, Lionel Walter and Charles; his brother, Leopold; his son-in-law, Captain Clive Behrens, and his nephews, Evelyn and Anthony. Earl Rosebery, a relative by marriage, also was among the mourners.

As the funeral car passed, the crowds bared their heads. King George was represented by Lord Annaly, and Queen Mother Alexandra by Earl Howe. Others who attended the services were David Lloyd George, A. J. Balfour, Lord Reading, Lord Sandhurst, Lord Acheson, Lord Haldane, representatives of the various Jewish societies, and most of the other leaders of the Jewish community.

For a distance of half a mile outside the cemetery gates great crowds lined the road.

WANTS INDUSTRIAL WAR DECLARED ON ENGLAND

Unless Britain Changes Policy, Metz Predicts Hundreds of U. S. Factories Will Suspend.

CRISIS IN DYE-STUFF INDUSTRY

Committee Appointed to Place Before State Department Dire Need of Some Relief in Situation—Supply Will Last Only Two Months.

PHILADELPHIA, April 2.—Immediate and concerted action by American manufacturers to obtain a modification of Great Britain's rules governing overseas commerce was urged to-day as a remedy for industrial ills by Herman A. Metz, Member of Congress from New York, and widely known manufacturer, in an address at a conference of dye men here. Mr. Metz declared manufacturers should declare an industrial war on England.

Unless the British government changes its policy, Mr. Metz declared, hundreds of factories throughout the United States will have to suspend operations, and about 300,000 men will be thrown out of employment.

Mr. Metz said that American manufacturers are dependent on Germany for certain raw materials, but to get them they must find a way to ship to Germany cotton and other things. "The Germans," he added, "have gotten tired of sending us dyes and other materials without getting anything in return."

D. F. Waters, of this city, read a letter from President Wilson, in which the President said the State Department appreciates the situation, and is doing all it can to relieve it.

The meeting was under the auspices of the board of directors and the advisory board of the National Association of Hosiery and Underwear Manufacturers.

Congressman Metz and D. F. Waters, president of the Master Dyers' Association, were appointed a committee

GREAT HELP TO A SICK WOMAN

This Lady Says, "I Cannot Find Words To Express How Thankful I Am To Cardui"

Jonesville, Va.—"I certainly appreciate what Cardui, the woman's tonic, has done for me," writes Mrs. Owen F. Wells, of this town. "Before I began to take Cardui, I could hardly go about. I had several womanly troubles, which caused me much suffering, and were very troublesome. But now I feel like a different person."

I had often read of Cardui, but had little faith in it. My husband urged me to try it, and now I cannot find words to express how thankful I am. Cardui is a wonderful medicine, and I feel that it was a greater help than anything I could have taken.

I had scarcely no pain or suffering at childbirth, and I feel I owe it all to Cardui. I know that no woman would make a mistake in using Cardui at that most critical time. It will save me so much suffering.

It is my sincere desire that this statement may be seen and read by all sufferers who suffer as I did. I am telling all my friends and acquaintances of the great cure I have received."

If you suffer from any of the ailments so common to women, give Cardui a trial. Thousands of women have voluntarily written to tell of the great benefit that Cardui has been to them. Why shouldn't it help you, too?

Try Cardui.

BUSINESS IS REVIVING

Domestic Improvement Helps Sheet and Tin Business.

PITTSBURGH, April 2.—Business is reviving in the sheet and tin plate mills throughout the country, according to John Williams, president of the Amalgamated Association of Iron, Steel and Tin Workers, here to-day on a visit to mill towns in the district. He said, however, that very few plants were working on war contracts, the business being mostly for domestic consumers.

Mr. Williams credited the improved condition to a revival which has been coming slowly for months, but more particularly to the acceptance by the workmen of the reduced scale of wages adopted last week.
